As a Farm Bureau member, you help ensure that we continue to support and preserve California agriculture and its farming and ranching families.

- We are committed to making sure your farm remains profitable, enhances the environment and improves the quality of life for all Californians.
- We strive to ensure that California communities have safe and affordable food for their families to enjoy.
- Dedicated teams work on state and national legislative issues that are a concern to all of us interested in maintaining the quality of rural life and preserving our agricultural interests.
- We promote agriculture education in and outside of the classroom to enrich communities in knowing where their food comes from and the importance of California farms and ranches.

All benefit programs are subject to change.
